Make your household food and nutrition secure to prevent malnutrition

Keep enough food for your household consumption and sell only when there is excess

Grow food that matures at different times of the year

Boil or treat your drinking water and keep it covered

Wash your hands using a tippy tap to maintain good hygiene

Always use a toilet and keep it clean

Keep your surroundings clean at all times